Curriculum Night/ PTA Meeting

The general body meeting of Henderson Mill ES PTA was held on August 22, 2019 in the cafeteria of Henderson Mill Elementary School. The meeting was called to order at 5:38 p.m. by Emily Fiksman. Emily welcomed everyone and introduced the PTA officers for the 2019-20 school year.

Co-Presidents – Emily Fiksman & CJ Barranco
Vice-President – Melissa Conner
Secretary – Christy Jackson
Treasurer – Lisa Ayers

Box Tops

This year parents can download the app and scan receipts. Box Tops that have been cut out are still accepted. More information will come home in the couriers tomorrow. Last year approximately $700 was collected through Box Tops and Coke Rewards. This money was used for the 2nd Grade robots and 3rd Grade Colonial Day.

Reflections

This is a national arts competition for all students who may be interested. More information will come home in the couriers. Entry forms can be found in the Media Center and Art Room. The last day for submissions is October 16th.

Lost and Found

Judy Pinto organized all the items that were found. Parents were encouraged to look through Lost and Found before visiting their child's classroom.

PTA Bylaws

The bylaws are available on our PTA website. There was a motion to approve the bylaws. All were in favor and none were opposed.

PTA Budget

PTA dues are currently $5. Members have voting privileges and gain access to the directory within Membership Toolkit. Of the $5, $3.75 goes toward state and national dues. Kristen Bryant made a motion to increase the dues to $10 which would take effect on October 1, 2019. The general body will vote on this at the next PTA meeting which will be at the end of September (Multicultural Night). Monetary donations can be made through Membership Toolkit or placed in the yellow box that is present at our PTA events.

The proposed budget for the 2019-20 school year was distributed. There was a motion to approve the budget. All were in favor, none were opposed.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:45 p.m.
